A Friendly NOTE

By: Paul Thompson

A short time ago a little town in Wales rated a modicum of attention in the press when culprits made off with the town's railway station sign. The theft, a schoolboy prank, was of no great moment, the town's name — boasting 57 letters and locally unpronounceable except possibly to a Welshman — was something else.

In diference to the local typographer we wouldn't hazard a spelling of the hamlet's name which in Welsh means "St. Mary's Church in a Hollow of White Hazel, Close to a Rapid Whirlpool and St. Tullio's Church."

Good food in many delicious forms is clearly spelled out on our menu here at FAIRWAY RESTAURANT, Rt. 24, Appomattox. Steak's, chops, beef and sea food abound on our regular menu. A spec at small tip steak for nibblers. Catering to banquets . . . free ample parking. Free stationery to those who wish to write home about our dinners. Call 352-7443 for a dinner cooked to order.

THIS WEEK'S HOUSEHOLD HINT: After using a wooden salad bowl, wipe clean with paper toweling and follow with a thorough wipping of the inside with a piece of bread. This absorbs oil still remaining.

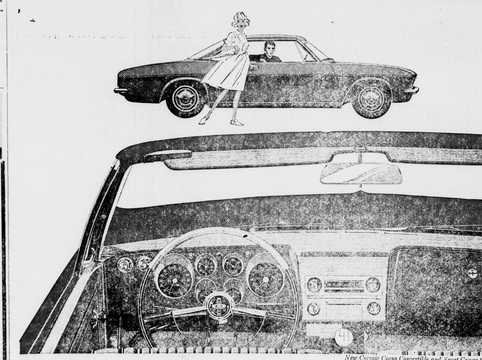
Rhythm Rebels To Sing Here

The Rhythm Rebels, Doris Padgett, Bill, Violet Marston, and Pat Thomas of Lynchburg, will be a part of the program of "Music of the Blue and Grey" sponsored by the Appomattox Civic Chorus on April 9, at the Appomattox High School auditorium. This well-known quartet has sung for many civic and church groups and the singers have appeared on TV and in person throughout Virginia, in Washington, and New York. Several other professional and non-professional entertainment groups will be on stage for the special Commemoration program being offered by the local Civic Chorus.



New Corvair Corsa Convertible and Sport Coupe top V-8 models (Jewel Box Red) for '65—all with Body by Fisher.

Zing into spring! Corvair by Chevrolet

The steering's crisper, the ride's flatter, the style's racier—even the grass looks a shade greener from behind the wheel of this new Corvair

For all its finely calibrated instrumentation—tachometer, manifold pressure gauge, even an electric clock with a sweep second hand for rally buffs—the most important thing that happens when you get a Corvair Corsa out on the road doesn't register on the dash. It registers on you.

You feel it in the steering—crisp and precise—as you double back on a curve. In the flat riveted-to-the-road stability of the new fully independent suspension. In the response of the rear engine (up to 180 hp available now in Corsa's Turbo-Charged version).

Drop down to your dealer's now—while the trading's extra good—and see for yourself.

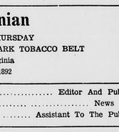
The Pastor Speaks



Rev. Thomas Waddill

As Jacob awoke from sleep one night he said, "Surely the Lord was in this place and I knew it not." How our own experience resembles that of Jacob! We find God in unexpected places and are astounded.

We expect to find God in our churches, in our religious assemblies, perhaps in our homes; but we don't expect to find Him in the slums, the bar, on the highway, in the factory, in the schoolroom, etc. We have been conditioned to think like this.

Jonah heard God calling him to an unpleasant task. He thought he could escape God if he left the country and so he booked passage on a boat to a distant land. To his dismay he learned the truth taught by the Psalmist, "Whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend to heaven, Thou art there! If I make my bed in Hell, thou art there! If I . . . dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there thy hand shall lead me." To the wicked, the unbeliever, these words strike terror, for there is no escape from God's wrath or the righteous, the one who puts his faith and hope in Jesus Christ they are words of great comfort and assurance.

As I go about my ministry I cannot help noticing how few who call themselves Christians have absorbed and practice this truth. More often than not we order our lives as if God were restricted to the Churches. In our everyday lives we ignore His requirements for justice and righteousness. "You have neglected the weightier matters . . . judgment and mercy and faith." In our troubles we ignore His offer of strength, courage, and comfort. "How oft would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings and ye would not!" One of the sins of mankind is his feeling of self-sufficiency. Man does not have to live by his own strength. Power from above is his for the asking. When we cultivate the presence of God life always seems easier. One of the paradoxes of life is that with God at our side, though the road may be ever so rough yet it seems smooth. We need to practice saying to ourselves, "Surely the Lord is in this place", absorb its truth and regulate our lives as if He were. Soon w ewill realize that He IS in this place, wherever it may be.

Ann Preston was an Irish servant girl. But she had a wonderfully intimate relationship with her Heavenly Father. She talked with Him as if He were a friend at her side. During her ninety-six years she found ample proof of the truth of her favorite text, "My God shall supply all your needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." She lived it daily; we can too.

Trial By Prejudice

Lesson for April 4, 1965

"Verdict first, trial afterwards!" It is only in a wonderland where everything makes nonsense and very little makes sense, that one would hear such a cry in a courtroom. But even little Alice in her dream knew and was something upside down about that sort of procedure. And yet the trial of Jesus, the trial that ended in His being sentenced without a single crime even fault proved against Him — that trial was one where the court had made up its mind beforehand. We cannot and should not blame living Jews for what their ancestors did, any more than we blame modern Italians for the sins of the Roman Empire. But the fact is that the Sanhedrin, highest court of the Jewish people at that time, had determined that Jesus must die, before he was even arrested —much less tried. If ever a prisoner was tried by prejudice, Jesus was that man.

The Way It Went

The way it went was this. Putting all the gospels together and filling out the story in Matthew, we find that the Sanhedrin were determined to destroy Jesus, with violence if possible, but anyhow destroy Him. They tried to make Him out an ignoramus, a superstitious man, a rebel against Rome; they tried to make Him sound like a fool in public but it didn't work. So they got Him arrested and charged with blasphemy. Jesus claimed no more than the truth, that He was indeed the Son of the Most High God. This seemed blasphemy to the chief priests, who made up most of the Sanhedrin; and blasphemy was in Jewish law a capital crime. But Roman law held in Judea; and in Roman law arrested and charged with blasphemy. So the problem was to get Jesus condemned to death in a Roman court, the only court able to impose capital punishment, for a crime no Roman court would recognize. We know how it went. All the trial proved was that the leaders of the Jews did not like Jesus, in fact hated Him. So Pilate, to save his own career, sentenced Jesus to be crucified, without any real charge or conviction.

What Is Prejudice?

The word "prejudice" comes from two Latin words meaning to judge beforehand. That is, having an opinion without considering the facts that should support the opinion — or refuse it as the case may be.

Don't We All?

It's easy to laugh at other people's prejudices; much harder to get rid of our own — or even to see our own. This is particularly true when many of the people we see and know and talk with every day have the same prejudices we also have. We are prejudiced whenever we say, or think, "All Negroes (or all white men, or all women, or all Frenchmen) are like that!" We show prejudice when we judge a man by the color of his skin, before we know a single fact about him; or when we accuse a man of being a money-grubber just because of the shape of his nose; or of being a dangerous man or an inferior type all because he has some name like McDonald or U Thant or Kaninsky and we think or say, "All Scotchmen (or Orientals, or Jews or Irish) are alike." We are guilty of prejudice whenever we condemn any person unheard and unknown. Prejudice drove in the Pharisees and Sadducees; prejudice kills people today.

Dear Editor,

For many months I have looked at the Appomattox County Courthouse with wonder, and with real concern I have searched the building as well as the grounds. For what? Why the American flag, of course! Finding none has grieved and astonished me.

I have heard teachers accused of not placing before our children enough emphasis on loyalty and patriotism. What does a building, housing a county government which fails to fly the flag of the nation teach?

I have traveled in thirty-five of the fifty states and several times as many county seats. Never have I encountered a courthouse without a flag. Many even fly three flags — old Glory, their state and county emblems as well.

With the Centennial approaching, and hopefully thousands visiting Appomattox as well as the surrender grounds, I wonder what the rest of the nation will think?

Sincerely yours,
Earl T. Pickett
